

Rules for Boxing Club Members

BCBC is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should, always, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

Therefore, members are encouraged to always be open and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with Mark Sculfor Welfare officer or Florin Nicorici Club Welfare Officer/General Manager.

As a member of BCBC you are expected to abide by the following junior code of conduct:

- All members must play within the rules and respect officials and their decisions.
- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Members should keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform their coach or team manager if they are going to be late.
- Members must ALWAYS wear suitable kit for training and competition sessions, as agreed with the coach/team manager. Boxers will have their own kit customised with the club's logo and colours only. Any personalisation without permission is forbidden. Club KIT will have NO SPONSORS, without agreed with GM.
- Members must pay any fees for training or events promptly. Monthly membership should be paid by 1st of the month ahead. In case of delay, we reserve the rights to charge per session or to stop the athlete attending sessions till the payment is made.
- Members are not allowed to smoke on club premises or whilst representing the club at competitions.
- Members are not allowed to consume alcohol or drugs of any kind on the club premises or whilst representing the club.
